Pursuant to the State of California Public Resources Code and the "Guidelines for Implementation of the California Environmental Quality Act of 1970" as amended to date, this is to advise you that the City of Laguna Beach has prepared an Initial Study for the following project.

PROJECT: Historic Preservation Ordinance Update

LOCATION/ADDRESS: Citywide

APPLICATION NUMBERS: General Plan Amendment; 19-5414, Local Coastal Program Amendment 17-0388 and Zoning Ordinance Amendment 17-0289

APN(s): Citywide

GENERAL PLAN DESIGNATION AND ZONING: Citywide

PROJECT APPLICANT: City of Laguna Beach, Community Development Department, Laguna Beach, CA 92651 (949) 497-0712

DESCRIPTION OF PROJECT: The purpose of the proposed Project is to update the City of Laguna Beach's Historic Preservation Program which provides for the identification, registration, treatment, and incentives for protection of historic resources within the City. The program proposes a voluntary designation process for historic resources and establishes incentives for the preservation, maintenance, and rehabilitation of historic resources. Implementation of the Update to the City's Historic Preservation Program would require amendments to the City's Historic Preservation Ordinance, General Plan Historic Resources Element, General Plan Land Use Element, City Residential Design Guidelines, other provisions of the City Municipal Code ("Proposed Update to Historic Preservation Program"), and the City's Local Coastal Program (LCP).

ENVIRONMENTAL SETTING: The City of Laguna Beach is located in the southern portion of Orange County, California. Access to the City is provided by Pacific Coast Highway and Laguna Canyon Road. The City covers an area of approximately nine square miles and has a population of approximately 25,000 people. The City is surrounded by a wide band of over 17,000 acres of open space and encompasses about seven miles of Pacific Ocean coastline. The City is situated within a coastal watershed that contains a number natural and improved drainages. The drainage from large areas of open space, particularly in northern Laguna Beach, flow through City infrastructure prior to reaching the ocean.

Land use in the City of Laguna Beach is predominantly hillside residential, with commercial centers and institutional uses concentrated along Pacific Coast Highway at the base of the hills and along Laguna Canyon Road. The City is essentially fully built-out with a housing stock that includes structures dating back to late 1800 to early 1900 period. The City recognized the importance of preserving Historic structures and established a Historic Preservation Ordinance. It also added an Historic Preservation Element to its General Plan. Most of current development today focuses on redevelopment of existing structures. Most new development is residential in nature and occurs on small parcels.

PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD: From December 24, 2019 to January 23, 2020 the public and all affected agencies are hereby invited to review the Negative Declaration and Initial Study, and submit written comments. Such comments may be submitted prior to or during the public hearing(s).

PUBLIC HEARING DATE: To be determined.

DECLARATION

Based on the Initial Study dated December 2019, staff has determined:

- X This project does not have the potential to substantially degrade the quality of the environment; substantially reduce the habitat of a fish or wildlife species; cause a fish or wildlife population to drop below self-sustaining levels; threaten to eliminate a plant or animal community; substantially reduce the number or restrict the range of an endangered rare or threatened species; or eliminate important examples of major periods of California history or prehistory.
- X This project does not have the potential to achieve short-term environmental goals to the disadvantage of long-term environmental goals.
- X This project does not have possible environmental effects that are individually limited but cumulatively considerable. (“Cumulatively considerable” means that the incremental effects of the individual project are significant when viewed in connection with the effects of past projects, the effects of current projects and the effects of probable future projects.)
- X This project will not have environmental effects that will cause substantial adverse effect on human beings, either directly or indirectly.

The aforementioned findings are contingent upon the following mitigation measures (if indicated) which have been incorporated into this project:

See attached mitigation measures. None required.
