The Natural Resources Agency is pleased to announce that changes to state guidelines for implementing the California Environmental Quality Act, which were adopted by the Secretary in November 2018, have been approved by the Office of Administrative Law. Those changes are now in effect. The final approved text, final statement of reasons (including comments and responses to comments), and related materials are now posted on the Agency's website at <http://resources.ca.gov/ceqa/>. The Agency thanks those who submitted comments, attended hearings, and otherwise participated in this update process.
