

Chief Executive Office.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Emergency Management

The Office of Emergency Management has the responsibility

of comprehensively planning for,
responding to and recovering from large-scale emergencies and disasters that impact Los Angeles County.
OEM's work is accomplished in partnership and collaboration with first response
agencies, as well
as non-profit,
private sector and government partners.

CONTACT US

OEM at a Glance

The Office of Emergency Management has broad responsibilities that include:

Operations

Planning and Coordination

- Coordinating the development and review of critical emergency management plans, including the County of Los Angeles Operational Area Emergency Operations Plan (OAEOP) and the County of Los Angeles All-Hazards Mitigation Plan.
- Providing ongoing leadership and coordination with all 88 cities, 137 special districts, and non-governmental organizations supporting emergency management within the Operational Area.
- Assisting County departments in the development of Department Emergency Plans that are consistent with the OAEOP.
- Guiding County departments in the development of Continuity of Operations plans to ensure critical functions provided by the County of Los Angeles are able to continue following an incident or disruption.

Supporting and advising the Board of Supervisors, Emergency Management Council, and Unified Coordination Groups on emergency management related matters before, during, and after incidents.

Training and Exercise

Recovery and Administrative

Public Education/Information

Disaster Preparedness

Individual and household level preparedness for emergencies and disasters is an important step toward overall resilience. Los Angeles County has established various disaster preparedness programs to assist individuals and businesses to prepare for emergencies.

Please visit the following for more information:

Visit Ready LA County for emergency preparedness tips, tricks, and information.

- Visit the Emergency Notifications page to register for Alert LA County and find information on other emergency alert systems utilized by cities within LA County.
- Visit the County Emergency Page during active incidents to find important details about evacuations, shelters, road closures, and other incident driven information.

For more information, please e-mail Los Angeles County Chief Executive Office, Office of Emergency Management at communications@ceooem.lacounty.gov [<mailto:communications@ceooem.lacounty.gov>].

