Project Title: University Residence Repairs, Los Angeles Campus

Project Location: UCLA Campus

Project Location – City: Los Angeles

Project Location – County: Los Angeles

Description of Nature, Purpose, and Beneficiaries of Project (Project Description): The UCLA University Residence Repairs project consists of restoration, renovation, and repair relating to the upkeep, safety, and modernization of the University-provided Chancellor's residence located in the northwest portion of campus.

Name of Public Agency Approving Project: University of California

Name of Person or Agency Carrying Out Project: University of California

Exempt Status: (check one)

- Ministerial (Sec. 21080 (b)(1); 15268);
- Declared Emergency (Sec. 21080(b)(3); 15269(a);
- Emergency Project (Sec. 21080(b)(4); 15269(b) (c));
- Categorical Exemption (15301, 15331)
- Statutory Exemptions. State code number:
- Common Sense Exemption (Sec. 15061(b)(3)).

Reason Why Project is Exempt: The project is categorically exempt pursuant to CEQA Guidelines Section 15301 (Existing Facilities) because the project consists of renovation of an existing structure with no increased or negligible increase of use. On a separate and independent basis, the project is also exempt pursuant to CEQA Guidelines Section 15331 (Historical Resource Restoration/Rehabilitation) because the project consists of maintenance, repair, restoration, preservation of a historical resource in a manner consistent with the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties with Guidelines for Preserving, Rehabilitating, Restoring, and Reconstructing Historic Buildings. Therefore, the project will not cause a substantial adverse change in the significance of a historical resource; accordingly, the historic resource exception to Categorical Exemptions detailed in CEQA Guidelines Section 15300.2(f) does not apply. Additionally, none of the other exceptions apply regarding cumulative impact (no similar projects in the same location are planned), significant effect (no existing unusual circumstances).
