Project Title: (RFFCP2022) WIP Capacity Subgrant - El Dorado Resource Conservation District (SNC 1704-RFFCP)

Project Location – Specific: General communication, outreach, and planning activities across parts of El Dorado County

Project Location - City: None – feasibility planning. The community of Placerville is within the project area.

Project Location - County: El Dorado

Description of Nature, Purpose, and Beneficiaries of Project:

The Sierra Nevada Conservancy would provide funding for the El Dorado Resource Conservation District to collaborate with local communities, regional partners, and stakeholders to develop a priority plan to improve forest health and fire resiliency. The proposed activities will increase capacity to prioritize, develop, and to identify future, not yet identified, projects specifically in Wildland Urban Interface (WUI) areas or near major transportation routes, although not exclusively. Tasks conducted under these activities would include participating in training sessions, attending regional conferences, working to develop monitoring and evaluation plans, communicating and engaging with stakeholders, creation of a collaborative Technical Oversight Committee, facilitating meetings, and the gathering of pertinent data and information for plan development. The El Dorado Resource Conservation District would also evaluate the planning, permitting and compliance requirements for future projects which have not yet been identified. The purpose is to engage with community and stakeholders to generate a list of future priority forest health and fire resiliency projects and create a plan for monitoring projects, as well as completing a Capacity Building Sustainability Report. These activities could potentially lead to improved forest health and fire resiliency, facilitate greenhouse gas emissions reductions, and increase carbon sequestration.

Exempt Status:

Statutory Exemption: Common Sense Exemption – CEQA Guidelines, Section 15061, subd. (b)(3) and Feasibility and Planning Studies under Pub. Resources Code, Section 21102 and CEQA Guidelines, Section 15262.

Reasons why project is exempt:

These activities are exempt under the commonsense exemption under Section 15061, subd. (b)(3) of the CEQA Guidelines which states that CEQA applies only to projects which have the potential for causing a significant effect on the environment. Where it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the activity in question may have a significant effect on the environment, the activity is not subject to CEQA. This grant funding would support capacity building activities and project pipeline development tasks such as training, coordination of meetings and community engagement as well as the gathering and sharing of data for early-stage planning and prioritization of currently unidentified, potential future projects related to forest health and fire resiliency. They are early-stage planning activities; no specific projects have yet been identified, nor have they been approved, adopted, or funded. There will be no ground or resource disturbance. Therefore, it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the activity in question may have a significant effect on the environment. Additionally, the project would be statutorily exempt under CEQA Guidelines, section 15262 exempting feasibility and planning studies as the activity involves planning studies for possible future actions which the Sierra Nevada Conservancy Board has not approved, adopted, or funded. Further, there is no legally binding effect on later activities.
